

Solihull Early Years and Education Improvement

What Comes Before Phonics?

Sally Neaum

Author, Researcher and Consultant in Education

Date and time:

Thursday 30th April – 1pm to 4.30pm

or Friday 1st May – 9.30am to 1pm

Venue: Solihull College The Conference Centre

Blossomfield Campus, Blossomfield Road, Solihull, B91 1SB

Audience: Early Years teachers and practitioners working in schools and early years settings in Solihull

Focus

Consider the knowledge, skills and understandings that children need to enable them to come to phonics teaching with a good chance of success.

What should we focus on in early years?

What comes before the formal teaching of phonics?

Explore a range of aspects of young children's learning that lead into literacy, including how to translate this into practice.

Booking: complete a training booking form and see terms and conditions

<http://www.solgrid.org.uk/eyc/training/booking-procedures/>

Cost: £35 per person

Drinks will be available on arrival and during the break

www.solgrid.org.uk/eyc

