

Hate Crime Project Pilot

Supporting schools with Hate Crime: Challenging stereotypes and supporting an inclusive ethos

Victim Support has set up a new Hate Crime Project pilot in Solihull and Wolverhampton, providing tailored one-to-one support for victims of hate crime in the local areas.

Victim Support are also providing training for professionals to identify hate crime with the communities in which they support and refer individuals in for support from the Project. This input is approximately one hour and we will provide access to a resource pack for the organisation/team.

The focus of the training programme for leads in school, considering where stereotypes come from and how to promote an inclusive ethos within school communities.
