

James Clements Expert Event

Teaching Writing: A Pathway To Success. Meeting the Challenges and Expectations of the 2014 National Curriculum for English

The Oxford Expert Speaker Programme brings the best known experts in education to events across the UK to share new ways of thinking about teaching and learning.

Oxford University Press is delighted to be working with James Clements, and will sponsor the training costs to deliver James' sessions to schools.

Event Agenda

- Session 1: Developing a writing culture
Session 2: Creating a curriculum for writing
Session 3: Effective strategies for teaching writing

Venue

Oak Hall,
Tudor Grange Academy,
Dingle Lane,
Solihull,
B91 3PD

Date & time

13th February 2019
9.15am - 3.00pm

Registration from 9.00am

Target Audience

- Primary Head Teachers
- SLT
- Subject Leaders

This event is free of charge to schools

To register: <https://james-clements-writing-solihull-13feb.eventbrite.co.uk>

About James Clements

For ten years, James Clements worked as a teacher and senior leader of an outstanding inner city primary school. James was also consulted on the 2014 National Curriculum for English in Primary Schools. James is now an English adviser, and works to develop the teaching of reading writing and drama. He is the creative director of Shakespeare and More, a not for profit organisation that promotes effective English teaching in primary schools.