

ILM YOUNG LEADER AWARD

A nationally recognised award, aimed at those aged 14 - 24 who wish to learn crucial life skills.

Particularly useful if you are in the process of applying to college, university, a new job or to compliment existing studies, voluntary or paid work.

Taught over 30 hours (1 day per month, over 6 months), 3 modules (see below) covered by class learning encouraged through group work, discussions, posters, presentations, and multi-media.

A portfolio of work is submitted and assessed (by March 2020) to receive the award. Some work will need to be completed in young person's own time.

Each young person is assigned a mentor who will provide one-to-one support and guidance.

Currently available for FREE.

To commence in June 2019.

Suitable for individuals & youth and community groups.

Register your interest by 30th April, 5pm

Email: jasmin@associatesolutions.co.uk

30 hours (6 x 1 day sessions)

Aged 14 - 24 years

Nationally recognised
Skills employers want

SELF-LEADERSHIP & RESILIENCE

Module Aim:

To understand the use of effective self-leadership to achieve identified goals; Develop self-leadership skills; Reflect on self-leadership.

You'll learn about:

- Setting personal SMART objectives
- Self-motivation and self-reward
- Problem solving
- Thinking creatively
- Thinking constructively
- Reflecting on performance in order to improve

PROMOTING EQUALITY & RESPECTING DIVERSITY

Module Aim:

To understand the difference between equality, diversity and inclusion; Explore behaviours associated with promoting equality and respecting diversity.

You'll learn about:

- How equality and diversity affects your community
- How you can promote equality and value diversity
- The challenges that exist and how to overcome them
- How to recognise and address bias, stereotypes, prejudice and behaviours that lead to discrimination

DEVELOPING LEADERSHIP SKILLS

Module Aim:

To understand the meaning of leadership; Develop own leadership skills; Reflect on leadership skills development.

You'll learn about:

- Characteristics of an effective leader
- Leading a team - action-centred approaches to individual, team and task
- Influencing others
- Dealing with conflict

CONTACT JASMIN@ASSOCIATESOLUTIONS.CO.UK FOR MORE INFO

WWW.ASSOCIATESOLUTIONS.CO.UK

WWW.I-L-M.COM

