

English as an Additional Language

Resources to support online and home learning for secondary schools.

All these British Council websites offer a range of English language activities at varied levels

<https://learnenglishkids.britishcouncil.org/>

<https://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/>

<https://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org/>

These websites have lots of curriculum content:

<https://www.sparknotes.com/>

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize> recently updated for home learning – a really good resource. Also, from Monday to Friday you will be able to watch Bitesize Daily on your TV from 9am -11am and then later on iPlayer.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zfwrcqt>

<https://classroom.thenational.academy/lessons/introduction-to-poetry-c9jkjd?activity=video&step=1>

<https://classroom.thenational.academy/> (video lessons on various topics/subjects covering EYFS, KS1, KS2, KS3 and KS4)

Curriculum resources including Maths word books for EAL students (KS2-4) in multiple languages:

Polish/ English: <https://wsh.wokingham.gov.uk/learning-and-teaching/mea/eal/polish-resources/subject-key-words/>

Arabic/ English: <https://wsh.wokingham.gov.uk/learning-and-teaching/mea/eal/arabic-resources/subject-keywords/?p=2>

Multiple languages: <http://www.bfinclusion.org.uk/Forms.htm>

Grammar and English language skills practice:

<https://elt.oup.com/student/headway/> This OUP site called Headway has English lessons and activities at different levels

http://www.bristol.ac.uk/arts/exercises/grammar/grammar_tutorial/index.htm (grammar explained for older and more advanced learners)

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/skillswise> (aimed at adults but could be used with older and more advanced learners of English).

<http://www.grammar-monster.com/>

The following sites offer reading and transcript

<https://www.storylineonline.net/>

Large selection of stories from different cultures read by famous people – video and transcript

<https://worldstories.org.uk/>

Stories from different cultures and countries – audio, video and translations in various languages

<http://learnenglishkids.britishcouncil.org/short-stories> and

<https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/library-page/>