

I am a good mathematician because

I can find patterns

I can find connections

I take risks

I find different ways to solve problems

I can talk about my maths clearly

I persevere when my maths seems challenging

I learn from my mistakes

I know learning maths can be hard

I have shared some interesting maths today

I check my results

I ask good questions