

Would you like to have more knowledge and confidence to work inclusively with the children you support?

Register today for our 'Introduction to Early Years Inclusive Practice' short course, available FREE from your local authority as part of the Comic Relief Early Years Inclusion Programme.

Join the thousands of learners who have enhanced their support for children with SEND and their families through the Dingley's Promise Training programme.

This course is popular with newly qualified practitioners as well as those seeking further professional development. It can be completed online in your own time and includes a balance of theory and practical application, designed to enable you to easily implement the learning in your setting. The course will take approximately 5 hours in total to complete.

Join Dingley's Promise in transforming inclusive practice in the early years, to give every child the best start.

Aims

- To increase awareness of the needs of all children, especially those with SEND.
- To increase confidence when supporting the learning of children with different levels of need.
- To increase parental confidence in the settings ability to meet the needs of children with SEND.
- To support your setting's wider development of inclusive practice.

You will look at:

- The impact of the environment on enabling learning for all children.
- Adaptations you could make to your learning environment to help prevent children experiencing sensory overload.
- Identifying different developmental levels and learning styles, and strategies that can be used to support this.
- The importance of partnership working when supporting children with SEND.

"Great course for learning new techniques and new ideas for the learning environment."

Dingley's Promise trainee

Contact your local authority lead for more information on this course or email training@dingley.org.uk