

AET school leads for autism termly meeting - AET Progression Framework

Date: 15 May 2026 Booking Form

Time: 9.00am – 12noon via Teams

Course cost: FREE for SENCO/Lead for Autism, or £75 per delegate

Course details

This termly meeting is for all leads for autism to:

- meet and share good practice
- receive updates and training relating to developing Good Autism Practice (GAP) across your setting
- enhance practitioners' knowledge and understanding of GAP
- help practitioners to question, evaluate and develop autism practice within their setting

This training module will introduce the new updated Progression Framework Resources and show you how to use the framework to identify key learning intentions. You will also be provided with a full package of new updated resources as part of this training.

The session is suitable for staff/practitioners working with children and young people across the three phases in both mainstream and specialist settings. It is likely that this training will appeal to a range of practitioners and the audience may include leaders, SENCOs, professionals involved with assessment, and outreach and advisory service representatives.

Aims

To familiarise you with the UPDATED! AET Progression Framework, so that you can use it to support autistic children and young people in your settings:

- Addressing skills development and understanding that autistic children and young people may find some skills more challenging than others
- Recognising and building on the strengths and interests of autistic children and young people to improve overall wellbeing
- Appreciating that autistic children and young people may need support in these areas and that their progress is dependent on this support

This training will be delivered by qualified AET trainers from the SISS Autism Team.

Learning objectives

This training will support you to:

- Become familiar with the key features and content of the AET Progression Framework.
- Use the AET Progression Framework to identify priorities and set learning intentions for individuals.
- Use the AET Progression Framework to provide evidence of progress.

Who is this training for?

This module is aimed at all education professionals working in primary and secondary schools.

All delegates will receive a CPD certificate from AET and a Practical Resource Pack to use in setting immediately following the session where an AET Professional Development module has been delivered.
