

Solihull Governor Services
Solihull School Governors' Training Programme
April 2018 – March 2019

Relationships and Sex Education
Governors' Statutory Responsibilities

This session will provide an up-date for governors around their statutory duties regarding relationship and sex education (RSE). It will look at what should be taught in the statutory and non-statutory curricula, the links between safeguarding and RSE and what Ofsted will be looking for during inspection. The session will explore how schools can work with their key stakeholders to ensure that their voices are heard and that the needs of children and young people are met.

The intended learning outcomes are that governors will:

- Increase their knowledge and understanding of the legal requirements upon schools pertaining to RSE;
- Recognise what good practice looks like in RSE in terms of policy development and teaching & learning;
- Have a better understanding of how schools can ensure that its provision for RSE meets the needs of its' community
- Have explored the role of governors with regard to relationships and sex education

The seminar will link to the following features of effective governance:

Strategic leadership that sets and champions vision, ethos and strategy.

Accountability that drives up educational standards and financial performance.

People with the right skills, experience, qualities and capacity. ✓

Structures that reinforce clearly defined roles and responsibilities.

Compliance with statutory and contractual requirements. ✓

Evaluation to monitor and improve the quality and impact of governance.

This seminar will be held on the following date:
