Solihull School Governors' Training Programme
April 2018 – March 2019

The Governor's Role in Monitoring

This seminar will provide governors with details of:

- Ways in which governors can demonstrate that they know their school well;
- Examples of models for implementing systems for monitoring and evaluating the school's performance in a range of areas;
- Practical ideas for monitoring the effectiveness of the governing board.

The intended learning outcomes are that governors will have considered:

- The key areas they need to monitor sources of information available to support them in that;
- How governor monitoring can contribute to the school's self-evaluation and development processes;
- Ways in which boards can monitor their own effectiveness.

The seminar will link to the following features of effective governance:

Strategic leadership that sets and champions vision, ethos and strategy.

Accountability that drives up educational standards and financial performance. ✓

People with the right skills, experience, qualities and capacity. ✓

Structures that reinforce clearly defined roles and responsibilities.

Compliance with statutory and contractual requirements. ✓

Evaluation to monitor and improve the quality and impact of governance. ✓
