Dear Colleague

The extended 30 hours early education funding entitlement

It was good to see so many providers at the autumn EEF meeting. We have arranged a follow up meeting on Tuesday 21st March 2017, 6.30 8.30pm

at

Civic Suite : Council Chamber (rear of Council House)

The focus of the spring information evening will be

- The position in Solihull
- The provider portal
- Sufficiency
- Family Information Service and info for parents
- An Early Education Funding (EEF) update (2s and 30 hours)
- Where to find further support re 30 hours
- What next.....

Refreshments will be available before the meeting in the Civic Suite refreshment room.

Making the Extended Entitlement Work for You - Childcare Works

A further event is planned for summer 2017 on Monday 15th May 1.30-4pm (schools and group settings) at Sans Souci and 6.30-9pm at the Civic Suite (Child Minders). This training will be led by Childcare Works and will support settings who would like further support to plan for the extended entitlement. Their website is <http://www.childcareworks.co.uk/about>

Booking for both sessions is through eyenquiries@solihull.gov.uk or scan and send the attached booking form. Further information is available at <http://www.solgrid.org.uk/eyc/30-hours/>

Yours sincerely
