

28th June- Working with parents/carers (Contact)

This workshop will provide practical ideas for practitioners when supporting families of disabled children in the Early years, by increasing understanding and awareness, and enabling better communication and relationships with families.

This workshop will be repeated on 5th July.

28th June - Supporting social communication in the EY, Part 1 (I CAN)

This workshop for early years SENCOs, managers and early years practitioners will help to enable excellent support for social communication in early years settings.

This will be repeated on 6th July also.

28th June - EY Workshop for Parent/Carers - Early Years Education (Contact)

This Parent workshop helps you understand what educational support is available in the early years settings and how to challenge decisions.

1st July - EY entitlements for children 0-5 with SEND (Contact)

This parent workshop will give you advice and support about childcare, what help is available for costs, what you can expect from your early years provider and what benefits and grants are available.

5th July - Support for speech and language (Contact and I CAN)

This parent workshop will help you to think how best to communicate with your child.

6th July - Helping your young child sleep (Contact)

This workshop supports parents to gain a better understanding of sleep processes, why sleep problems may occur, some possible causes and what may help.

6th July - Meeting the needs of every child (Nasen)

This webinar will provide EY practitioners with a thorough understanding of inclusive practice for SEND in EY settings.

7th July - Toilet training (Contact)

This workshop provides strategies for parent/carers and practitioners on how to toilet train a child with additional needs.

12th July - Supporting social communication in the EY, Part 2 (I CAN)

This workshop for early years SENCOs, managers and early years practitioners will help to enable excellent support for social communication in early years settings.

This will be repeated on 20th July.

12th July - encouraging positive behaviour (Contact)

This parent workshop will help you gain a better understanding of why children behave the way they do and learn strategies to support