Do you suspect a child is being neglected but do not know what steps to take next?

Are you working with a child who is being neglected and unsure how to progress and feel the problem is stuck?

Introducing multi-agency solution circles with a focus on neglect!

Solihull Safeguarding Children Partnership Neglect Champions are initiating multi-agency solution circles as a way to come together with other professionals to support each other in a non-judgemental approach. The next session will take place on Wednesday 7 May 1-2pm at Dorridge Primary School, Station Road, Dorridge, Solihull, B93 8EU. You can book your place here

Neglect Roadshows

The Neglect Roadshow is being offered in a variety of localities around Solihull. People who wish to attend are encouraged to attend in a locality they are based, work or volunteer directly with people in that area. The first roadshow will take place at the Riverside Family Hub on the 26th May 15:00-17:00. To register your interest in being involved please click here.

What does cumulative harm mean in your practice?

The next SSCP Learning Forum will be taking place on 11th June 2-4pm which will focus on understanding cumulative harm. Come and take part in the multi-agency exploration of a case using a multi-agency chronology. To book a place please click here.

A Cumulative Harm Guide has been produced and is available within the Neglect pages on the SSCP website.

Solihull Parenting Team have released workshops for parents, carers and teenagers

Please find attached the new timetable for the summer term 2025 here detailing the groups starting in May.

In addition, access to the range of online Solihull Approach courses remains free of charge to Solihull parents & carers and guidance is attached on how they can register for this resource.

Please feel free to pass on to any interested parents and carers, as well as any colleagues. Any queries, please contact the team via bsmhft.parenting@nhs.net
